

SPEAKERS PROGRAM

University of Canberra

19 & 20 August at the National Convention Centre

Saturday, 19 August

10:15am Suffer from back pain?

Physiotherapy researchers deliver the latest on back pain.
Assoc Professor Gordon Waddington,
Physiotherapy Convener, University of Canberra

11:30am What effect are video games having on your kids?

Dr Michele Fleming, Centre for Applied Psychology,
University of Canberra.

12:45pm CSI: fact or fiction?

Dr Chris Lennard, Forensic Services,
Australian Federal Police.

2:00pm How do viruses make us sick?

Dr Brett Lidbury, Senior Lecturer, Biomedical Science,
University of Canberra

3:00pm What can we learn from the genes of an Australian wallaby?

Anna MacDonald, PhD student, Institute of Applied
Ecology, University of Canberra

4:15pm Why do we get mouse plagues?

Professor Roger Pech, Institute of Applied Ecology,
University of Canberra

Sunday, 20 August

10:30am Latest Research on Chronic Fatigue Syndrome

Join Professor Andrew Lloyd, University of New South
Wales, Assoc Professor Suresh Mahalingam,
University of Canberra and the ACT ME/CFS Society for a presentation on the latest research into Chronic Fatigue Syndrome.

Venue:
Nicholls Theatre
National Convention Centre
Constitution Ave, Canberra

Free entry. Bookings not required.

For more information
(including talk abstracts):

W www.canberra.edu.au

T 02 6201 2065

E inga.davis@canberra.edu.au

UNIVERSITY OF CANBERRA

NEW INTELLIGENCE

